THE FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY OF EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA

To Celebrate Its Sixth Anniversary & The 225th Anniversary of Pres. Washington's Southern Tour
With a Presentation about The First Families of NC by Historian & Author John Anderson Brayton

The Family History Society of Eastern North Carolina will celebrate its sixth anniversary and commemorate the 225th anniversary of President George Washington's 1791 Southern Tour on Sunday, April 17, 2016, at 3 p.m., at the Broad Street Christian Church Fellowship Hall, 802 Broad Street, New Bern, North Carolina, with a free, special presentation about the First Families of North Carolina by historian and author John Anderson Brayton of Memphis, Tennessee. A Martha Washington Reception will follow.

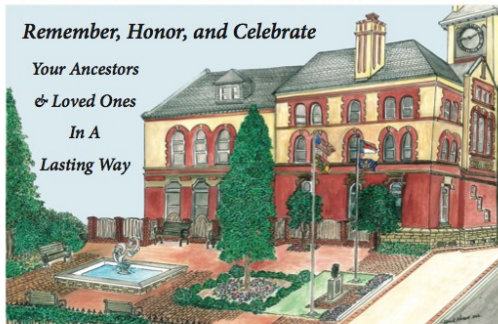

Mr. Brayton is a noted author of four volumes about the first families of North Carolina. He is also the author of many other books including "The Complete Ancestry of Tennessee Williams" as well as numerous volumes about early North Carolina and Virginia records. He is the official genealogist for the Order of First Families of North Carolina which was founded in 1992. The OFFNC has over 350 members and more information including a list of some of the early families of North Carolina is available at www.OFFNC.org. A listing of Mr. Brayton's books is available at www.ENCFamilies.org and his books will be available at the event. Pre-orders are encouraged to insure availability.

Future Heritage Park • New Bern • Craven County • North Carolina

In The Heart of Downtown New Bern • Pollock Street Between Christ Church & City Hall

The FHS of ENC was organized in 2010 to celebrate the rich, cultural heritages of the people of Eastern North Carolina area from the early times to the present. Since its formation, it has hosted and co-hosted over thirty area historical events including four ENC Family History Fairs. Its main ENC community project is the development of the future Heritage Park in downtown New Bern next to City Hall on Pollock Street.

This special Spring history event will be a time for everyone to visit and learn more about the early families of North Carolina whose descendants are now found all over the globe and to commemorate President's Washington's historic 1791 visit to North Carolina. The event is free and open to the public and everyone is welcome. To assist us in planning and for more event information, please pre-register at www.ENCFamilies.org or call (252) 349-0405. #### Media Contact: David French, Director, The FHS of ENC, (252) 349-0102 (Media Telephone) or info@encfamilies.org.

Family Genealogies:

1. The Complete Ancestry of Tennessee Williams, hardcover, 6" x 9", xxi, 489 pages, full-name index, 80 pages: name, location, slave. Jackson, Miss., 1993. Was $35, now, $5.00. Forward by James Steven Cotham, Director of McClung Room, East Tennessee Historical Center, Knoxville, TN. Introduction links Tennessee Williams to all his notable cousins, including royalty, presidents of the United States, and several state governors. Traces the author's ancestry back 14 generations, complete with primary and secondary source documents, often providing a discussion of the various genealogical problems involved with each ancestor. All royal descents provided. Separate chapters provided for families in Williams's ancestry, often for the first time in print, for instance:

The Two Thomas Bakers; a discussion of the two colonial Baker families of Boston, MA, with descendants for 6 generations. Bellar; descendants of Peter Bellar of Frederick Co., VA, and Stokes Co., NC, with many probate and land records of Berkeley Co., West VA, and Campbell Co., VA. Bowker; descendants of Ralph Bowker of King and Queen, Spotsylvania, and Cumberland counties, VA. Carnes; descendants of John Carnes and Elizabeth Mortimer of Boston, MA, for four generations. Evans of Prince George Co., VA; a discussion of all the disparate Evans families of colonial Charles City and Prince George counties, VA; follows family of John Evans, Sr., and Mary (--), of Charles City into Lunenburg, Amelia, and Mecklenburg counties, VA. Lanier of East Greenwich, Kent; probate records for the Lanier family of Kent, from the Archdeaconry of Rochester. Roger Lawson of Rowan Co., NC; traces descendants of Roger Lawson of Cecil Co., MD, through son Hugh Lawson of Rowan Co., NC, for 3 generations. Miller; descendants of Alexander Miller of Northampton Co., PA, for 4 generations. Nickerson of Norwich, Norfolk; discussion of Nickerson family of Norwich, Norfolk, and Barnstable, MA. Moses White of Rowan Co., NC; discussion of ancestry of Moses White in Lancaster Co., PA, and his descendants in Rowan Co., NC, for 3 generations. Woodhouse of Boston, MA; obscure descendants of Richard Woodhouse of Boston, MA, with related families of Pierce, Morse, Moulton, and Pike, for 3 generations.

2. The Ancestry of General James Robertson, "Father of Tennessee," Addendum to the Complete Ancestry of Tennessee Williams. Softcover, 6" x 9", viii, 60 pages, Jackson, Miss., 1995. $5.00. Traces ancestry of Gen. James Robertson (1742-1814) back to Prince George and Henrico counties, VA, and corrects mistakes in previous Robertson genealogies.

3. The Descendants of Cheney Boyce, "Ancient Planter," and of Richard Craven for Six Generations. Hardcover, 6" x 9", xxiv 486 pages, Jackson, Miss., 1996. Was $40; now, $25.00. Traces descendants of Cheney Boyce for 7 (and in some place 8-9) generations, from Charles City Co., VA, through the VA Tidewater, eastern NC, TN, AL, and Arkansas. Provides much information on related families: Briggs, Carstarphen, Chappell, Gary, Gee, Potts, Rives, Scott, Sledge, Tatum, and contains an appendix on the descendants of the irascible Dr. John Cogan of Charles City and Isle of Wight counties, VA. OUT OF PRINT.

Full abstracts, with metes and bounds, of all early Currituck Co., NC, Deeds, especially Unnumbered Deed Book 1, which has not been indexed in the grantor-grantee index at the Currituck Courthouse. Reconciles various versions of Deed Book 2. Records from 1696-1773. Winner of the North Carolina Genealogical Society Award for Excellence in Publishing—2000. 2nd printing, 2014.

2. "By a Line of Marked Trees," vol. 2, Abstracts of Currituck Co., NC, Deed Books 3, pp. 123-557, and 4. Softcover, 6" x 9", viii, 237 pages. Clearfield Co., Baltimore, MD, 2007. $20.00. Full abstracts, with metes and bounds, continuation of Deed Book 3, 1801-1084, and all of Deed Book 4, 1781-1784, with many records from the early eighteenth century, and a half a dozen wills.

3. Annotated Abstracts of Southampton County, VA, Deed Book 1, 1749-1753. Softcover. 6" x 9", x, 120 pages. Jackson, Miss., 2001. $20.00. Full abstracts of all deeds of Deed Book 1, with every mention of a former land grant, will bequest, or deed of sale referenced to its original document in a footnote. 267 documents abstracted.

4. Transcriptions of Lower Norfolk Co., VA, Records, vol. 1, Wills and Deeds, Book D, 1656-1666. Softcover, 6" x 9", xii, 755 pages. Jackson, MS, 2007. $30.00. Complete transcription of lengthy record book, much of which has never been indexed. Heretofore unseen land patents, marriage records, estate records, lawsuits, multiple marriages, Orphans Court.

5. Transcriptions of Lower Norfolk Co., VA, Records, vol. 2, Records, Book C, 1651-1656. Softcover, 6" x 9", xii, 567 pages. Baltimore, MD, 2009. $30.00. Complete transcription of lengthy record book, much of which has never been indexed. Heretofore unseen land patents, marriage records, estate records, lawsuits, multiple marriages, Orphans Court.

6. Abstracts of Pasquotank Co., NC, Deeds, 1750-1770. Softcover, 6" x 9", x, 379 pages. Baltimore, Maryland, 2009. $20.00. Continuation of Deed Book C, 1750-1755; D&E, 1755-1761; and F&G, 1761-1770.

7. Abstracts of Carteret Co., NC, Deeds, 1713-1759. Softcover, 6" x 9", vi, 185 pages. Baltimore, MD, 2010. $20.00. Abstracts of Book 1, A-C, E-F, 1722-1729, 1749-1759, and Book 2, D, 1728-1748.

8. Abstracts of Beaufort Co., NC, Deed Book 2, 1729-1748. Softcover, 6" x 9", ii, 176 pages. Baltimore, MD, 2011. $20.00.

Colonial Families of Surry and of Isle of Wight Counties, Virginia—a series which will treat various families of these counties in a six-generation format, including all records, documents, and discussions of descent. Starts with immigrant, and traces all descendants, male and female, down to children of the 5th generations, with English origins of immigrant studied, if available or known. Series also contains abstracts or full transcriptions of records of Isle of Wight Co., VA.

1. [Vol. 1] The Five Thomas Harrises of Isle of Wight Co., VA. Softcover, 6" x 9", xvii, 190 pages. Jackson, Miss., 1995. $20.00. Traces descendants, in some cases for 5 generations, of the various Thomas Harrises of Isle of Wight: [1] Thomas Harris, the testator of 1688; [2] Thomas Harris, the testator of 1672 (whose son John owned land in Lancaster Co., VA); [3] Thomas Harris, Jr.; [4] Thomas Harris, the testator of 1729, and probable son of Edward; [5] Thomas Harris of Chippoakes, Surry Co., VA. Full name-location index. All Harris individuals indexed to show relation to progenitor. Demonstrates that there is NO RELATIONSHIP between any of the Thomas Harrises of Isle of Wight to the armigerous JOHN HARRIS of Crixse, Essex, England, and Charles City Co., VA. THEIR ORIGINS ARE ALL UNKNOWN, in spite of the allegations of other deluded writers. OUT OF PRINT

2. Vol. 2, The Descendants of Robert Harris of Isle of Wight Co., VA. Hardcover, 6" x 9", xvi 410 pages. Jackson, Miss., 1999. $25.00. Traces descendants of daughter Mary Harris who married (1) Anthony Spiltimber, and (2) Matthew Swann. Includes families of House, Drew, Sugars, Jones, Phillips, Crafford, Macon, Arrington, Hilliard, Carrell, Fort, and Bynum. Resolves many problems found in Boddie, etc. No relationship with this Harris to any other Harris families. TEMPORARILY OUT OF PRINT.

3. Vol. 3, The Court Orders of Isle of Wight Co., VA, October 1693—May 1695. Softcover, 6" x 9", x 78 pages. Jackson, MS, 2000. $20.00. Complete verbatim transcription of only existing seventeenth century Court Order Book of Isle of Wight Co. Corrects mistakes in former abstracts. Glossary of Latin terms. Name-location-slave index. Paints quite a picture of colonial Virginia.

4. Vol. 4, The Descendants of Capt. John Jennings of Isle of Wight Co., VA. Softcover, 6" x 9", xii, 160 pages. Jackson, Miss., 2001. $20.00. Traces descendants of Capt. John Jennings, Clerk of Court of Isle of Wight Co., VA, through his second wife Mary (--) Seward, for 7 generations. Discussion of English Common Law, genealogical charts. Includes families of Carrell, Wheadon, Bidgood, Gulley, Spratley, and Thomas; contains an appendix on the descendants of Phillip Thomas of Isle of Wight (d. 1702/3). Demonstrates that Mrs. Silvestra (Bennett) Hill had no living descendants, and corrects mistakes found in Adventures of Purse & Person, 3rd. ed. Full-name-location-slave indices.

5. Vol. 5, Isle of Wight Co., VA, Book A, Deeds, Wills, Conveyances, 1628-1659. Softcover, 6" x 9", xii, 100 pages. Jackson, Miss., 2001. $20.00. Verbatim transcription of the first book of county records. Contains some of the earliest records in colonial Virginia, as well as records in Isle of Wight reaching back to 1626. Complete with index of persons, localities, slaves. 2nd printing, 2014.

6. Vol. 6, Isle of Wight Co., VA, Will & Deed Book 1, 1662-1683, Abstracts of Deeds, 1715. Hardcover, 8½" x 11", xii, 317 pages. Jackson, Miss., 2001. $30.00. Verbatim transcription of record book. Contains deeds, powers of attorney (many from merchants in Bristol), depositions concerning age, some wills, bills, and marriage contracts. Over 530 pages of seventeenth-century text painstakingly transcribed in full. Footnotes to explain archaic terms. Many records never before seen either in print or in abstracted form.

7. Vol. 7, The Ancestry of the Pitt Family of Bristol, Gloucester, Charlestown, Massachusetts, and Isle of Wight County, Virginia. Softcover, 6" x 9", viii, 144 pages. Jackson, Miss., 2002. $20.00. Traces all documented ancestry of Pitt immigrants to MA and VA, including never before seen ancestry of maternal branches, all back to early 1500s. Ancestral families: Pitt, Gibbs, Pykes, Cooke. Contains an attractive, separate, folded 11" x 17" pedigree drop-chart. Full indices.

8. Vol. 8, Isle of Wight Co., VA, Will & Deed Book 2, 1666-1719. Hardcover, 8½" x 11"; xii, 570 pages. Jackson, Miss., 2004. $40.00. Complete verbatim transcription of all documents, including wills, estate inventories and accounts, Orphans' Court proceedings, some records never abstracted before. Gives an overwhelmingly complete picture of the households and possessions of colonial Virginians.

9. Vol. 9. The Family of George Williams, died 1672, of Isle of Wight Co., VA. Softcover, 6" x 9", x, 203 pages. Baltimore, Maryland, 2009. $20.00. Discussion of Daniel Boucher's family, including Hunt, Parker, Reynolds, Fenn, Council, plus corrections and additions to Adventurers of Purse and Person, 4th ed.

Order of First Families of North Carolina, Registry of Ancestors:

1. Vol. 1. Softcover, 6" x 9", xxix, 666 pages, Jackson, Miss, 2006, $30.00. This volume, which is the first of this series, begins the genealogy of every eligible ancestor used by members to join the Order. Treatment of the ancestor depends upon what is known of him or her, but mostly includes a full first and second generation, down to the fourth, with drop-charts describing descent to member. Ancestors in vol. 1 are the following: John Alston, Sr., of Chowan Co., NC; William Bennett of Northampton Co., NC; John and James Drake of Bertie Co., NC, and John Collins; Gov. William Drummond; Nathaniel Everett of Tyrrell Co., NC; William Bridgers, John Cotton, Osborne and Simon Jeffreys, Capt. John Speir, and William Whitehead; Benjamin Laker of Perquimans Co., NC; John Mann II; Thomas Mann II; Dr. Godfrey Spruill, Ann Walker, Henry Norman I and II; Thomas Vinson of Surry Co., VA, and Northampton Co., NC. 2nd printing, 2014, softcover.

2. Vol. 2. Hardcover, 6" x 9", xx, 552 pages, Baltimore, Maryland, $30.00. This volume treats the known descendants for five generations, male and female, of John Williams, died testate 1692, Isle of Wight Co., VA, and his brother Thomas Williams, died 1693, Isle of Wight Co., VA. OFFNC ancestors are second generation: John<sup>2</sup> Williams, William<sup>2</sup> Williams, and Samuel Herring (married Anne<sup>3</sup> Williams). Some lines, where information was available, are taken down to the 9th generation. The question of Ann Wheatley's marriage to a John Williams is resolved in the appendix—she married another John Williams, not ours. Much new information taken from now available chancery suits at the Library of Virginia has been included.

Order of First Families of North Carolina, Ancestor Biographies:

1. Vol. 1. Hardcover, 6" x 9", xiv, 357 pages, Baltimore, Md., 2011, $30.00. Fully documented sketches of the first 200 ancestors used by members to join the OFFNC, complete with a documented list of children and their spouses. English origins are given where known, and colonial origins are discussed. Much information never seen before.
